Figure 1. In the figure, each point on the two-dimensional plane represents the reduced-dimensional position of a branch node in the B&B (Branch and Bound) tree. A total of 61 colors are used, where the colors range from cold (purple) to warm (red), corresponding to the node depths ranging from 0 to 60, respectively.